The journalist and writer DANIELA QUIETI, Patroness of the Premio D'Annunzio, as well as President of Association Logos Culture and the writer and director VITTORINA CASTELLANO will exhibit some of their literary works. D'Annunzio Award, for many years, continues journey begun by our illustrious, eclectic and known countryman, adding chapters to its history and giving continuity and vent to his innate talent to express and exalt the beauty that is around.

The city of Pescara is honored that also continues the link between D'Annunzio and all its territory, dotted with places where he found friends, inspiration and living spaces.

The fact that this happens through an award capable of still tell new facets of a character so known and in many ways analyzed in all its many aspects, is certainly a way to continue its promotion of talent.

Art, creativity, even the provocation that were so family, confirmed the best ingredients to give the world of vital nourishment culture to respond to hunger again that the world feels.

A hunger that d'Annunzio would be happy to food and to which he responded in a timely and transgression.
